Osler's Franchise Review includes legislative updates, commentaries on recent cases and frequently asked questions as well as news on our team. In this edition, we take a look at the decision of one Ontario judge who chose to adopt an "informed decision" approach in determining whether a franchisor met its disclosure requirements. We also note the introduction of legislation to bring real estate corporations to Ontario and we report on the demise of Ontario's Bulk Sales Act. In our FAQs, we delve into some common concerns for those considering offering franchises in Québec.

Legislation

Private right of action under CASL is coming into force

Dominic Mochrie, Paul Kotschorek

Private remedies under CASL foreshadow an increased class action risk.

B.C.'s Franchises Act now in force

Dominic Mochrie, Paul Kotschorek

Have you updated your national FDD to include B.C.?

French language requirements for public signage in Québec

Kelly Moffatt, Nicolas Nadeau Ouellet, Alexandre Fallon, Juliette Cong Liu, François Laurin-Pratte

Since November 2016, new regulations require signage with English trademarks to display a French-language description of the business or other presence of French.

Ontario Private Members' Bill proposes real estate corporations

Dominic Mochrie, Paul Kotschorek

A Private Members' Bill may finally bring real estate corporations to Ontario.

Rewards points to become more rewarding for Ontario consumers

Andraya Frith, Christine Jackson

While not yet in force, an amendment to Ontario's Consumer Protection Act will soon prohibit the expiry of consumer rewards points based on the passage of time alone.

Bill 791: Will rewards points become more rewarding for Québec consumers?

Andraya Frith, Christine Jackson

Will Québec quickly follow Ontario? A bill in Québec also seeks to prohibit the expiry of rewards points.

Repeal of Canada's last bulk sales legislation: Ontario's Bulk Sales Act

Dominic Mochrie, Paul Kotschorek

And then there were none – Canada’s only remaining bulk sales legislation has been repealed.

Frequently asked questions – Franchising in Québec

Franchisors looking to expand business operations into Québec need to be mindful of the key differences in the franchise model in order to effectively tap into this potentially lucrative market and avoid legal issues.

View our responses to the following questions:

- What disclosure is legally required to be provided to a potential franchisee in Québec?
- So I have a pre-contractual duty to inform. What are the risks associated with inadvertent non-compliance with this duty and how can I mitigate such risks?
