

Osler's emerging and high growth clients share their success stories

MARCH 29, 2023 1 MIN READ

For more than a decade, Osler has served as counsel to some of Canada's most innovative and leading startup founders and growth-stage investors. Companies like Waabi, Fable, Mercator AI and Qui Identity are rapidly becoming game changers in the sectors they operate. Often starting with an idea to improve a process, product or experience, these founders use technology and their vision for the future to better the world. From seed stage to exit, our Emerging and High Growth Companies Group provides early-stage companies access to a multi-disciplinary team from offices across the firm. Through multiple financing rounds, acquisitions, and other mission-critical legal projects, Osler helps founders realize their dreams.

Read the Deal Points Report: Venture Capital Financings, our second annual comprehensive report on venture capital and growth equity financing transactions, for more insights on the ecosystem that supports emerging and high-growth companies across Canada.

Click on each block below to learn more about our clients and their plans for the year ahead.

PENDER VENTURES

Fable