

Andrew Omazic

Articling Student

.....

Toronto

(416) 862-6403

aomazic@osler.com

.....

Andrew is articling at Osler’s Toronto office, where he is working with the Commercial, Banking & Finance, and Corporate practice groups.

Andrew graduated from Queen’s University Faculty of Law, where he received the Dean’s Silver Scholar award for achieving the second-highest standing in the first-year class. He also obtained the highest grade in eight courses, including Construction Law, Securities Regulation, Business Associations, and Evidence. During law school, he served as an academic tutor, worked as a caseworker and student leader at the Queen’s Business Law Clinic, and represented Queen’s Law at the Davies Corporate/Securities Law Moot.

Prior to law school, Andrew studied commerce at the University of Guelph and worked as a research assistant in the Department of Management.

Awards and Recognition

- Dean’s Silver Scholar Award (1L)
- Aird & Berlis LLP Scholarship
- C Thomas Asplund Memorial Award in Legal Ethics
- Professor H.R.S. Ryan Scholarship
- Queen’s Law Prize in Securities Regulation
- Queen’s Law Prize in Business Associations

- Queen’s Law Prize in Construction Law
 - Queen’s Law Prize in Property
 - W.S. O’Hara Prize in Criminal Law
 - Newton Rowell Entrance Scholarship in Law
-

Credentials

Education

- Queen’s University, JD
-

Languages

- English