

Angelie Vivekanand

Summer Student

.....

Toronto

.....

Angelie has completed her second year at Osgoode Hall Law School. Prior to attending law school, she obtained her HBA at the Ivey Business School.

While attending law school, Angelie worked as a Student Caseworker at Osgoode’s Investor Protection Clinic to provide pro bono legal assistance to harmed investors. Through her participation in numerous moot competitions, Angelie has gained practical experience with appellate court advocacy. She won the first-place championship at the Osgoode Constitutional Law Moot. Angelie won Top Appellant Team at the Cassels Cup competition (‘Baby Gale’) which took place at the Ontario Court of Appeal. She was also selected to compete on Osgoode’s Gale Cup team and has had numerous experiences coaching both law school and undergraduate moot teams.

Before attending law school, Angelie worked as an Impact Investing Analyst at Genus Capital Management. She has experience conducting research, solving complex business challenges, and analyzing portfolio results for clients.

---

Community Involvement

- FCJ Refugee Centre (through Pro Bono Students Canada), Caseworker Volunteer
- Osgoode’s Investor Protection Clinic, Student Caseworker

---

Credentials

Education

- Osgoode Hall, J.D. (2025)
- Ivey Business School, HBA (2022)

.....

Languages

- English