

Danielle Kubiseski

Articling Student

.....

Toronto

(416) 862-5927

dkubiseski@osler.com

.....

Danielle completed her J.D. at Osgoode Hall Law School. Prior to attending law school, she obtained a Bachelor of Science with Distinction in Biology & Psychology at Queen’s University.

Danielle joined Osler as a summer law student in 2024 and previously worked as a summer law student at a real estate company that develops and operates purpose-built rental housing. While at law school, Danielle completed the Advanced Business Law Workshop I (Corporate Finance) and II (Mergers & Acquisitions). She also volunteered as a caseworker for the Community & Legal Aid Services Program (CLASP) and as a clinic fellow at the Osgoode IP Innovation Clinic

Awards and Recognition

- The Honourable F.H. Barlow Scholarship – academic excellence in commercial and business law courses
- Gowling WLG Prize – highest standing in Securities Regulation
- Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP Award – Renewable Upper-Year Scholarship for academic achievement
- Patrick J. Monahan Award – Entrance Scholarship

Community Involvement

- CLASP, Administrative Law Division Caseworker
 - Osgoode IP Innovation Clinic, Clinic Fellow
-

Credentials

Education

- Osgoode Hall, J.D. (2025)
 - Queen’s University, Bachelor of Science (2022)
-

Languages

- English