Tatyana obtained her J.D. from Osgoode Hall Law School. During her time at Osgoode, Tatyana served as the President of the Fashion Law Society and worked as a Dean's Fellow. In her final year of law school, she completed an exchange at the National University of Singapore.

Prior to law school, Tatyana obtained her Bachelor of Arts and Science with Honours from Queen's University. She gained significant experience in Intellectual Property while working at a law firm before attending law school. Tatyana joined Osler as a summer student in 2022. Additionally, she played a pivotal role in establishing the Black Legal Action Centre's Lawyer Referral Program and created a fundraiser that supports legal organizations and organizes a toy drive for youth during the winter season.
