

Tishe Omolade

Avenue Intern

.....

Calgary

tomolade@osler.com

.....

Tishe is a recent Bachelor of Commerce graduate from the University of British Columbia’s Sauder School of Business, with diverse experience in legal support, community outreach, and leadership. As an Intern at Osuji and Smith Lawyers, she conducted legal research, attended over 40 client consultations and assisted in drafting documentation across various practice areas, including employment, civil litigation, real estate, family & divorce, immigration, business & corporate, wills & estates, and personal injury.

Awards and Recognition

- Grosvenor Award for IBPOC students

Community Involvement

UBC Agape Homeless Outreach, Volunteer (2022-2025)

- Provided resources to individuals experiencing homelessness, fostering empathy and advocacy skills.

UBC Africa Awareness Initiative, Co-President (2024-2025) & VP Internal (2023-2024)

- Led initiatives promoting African culture and social awareness, organized events for 100+ students, and facilitated community dialogue.

UBC Sauder School of Business, CUS Commerce Connections Mentor (2024-2025)

- Facilitated monthly coffee chats and consistent follow-ups with mentees, connecting them to resources, events and opportunities tailored to their aspirations

Salvation Army, Volunteer (2024-2025)

- Provided essential support by serving 150+ meals per shift to community members, fostering a warm and inclusive environment for individuals facing food insecurity.
-

Credentials

Education

- University of British Columbia, Bachelor of Commerce
-

Languages

- English