Areas of Expertise

Research

Adam recently completed his J.D. at Osgoode Hall Law School. During law school, Adam acted as an Research Assistant for Professor Palma Paciocco, studying the limits of prosecutorial discretion. He also participated in the Family Law Project, which offers assistance to low income litigants in family law proceedings.

Prior to law school, he obtained a B.A. and an M.A. in History from the University of Ottawa, where he focused on the history of colonialism.

While articling at Osler, Adam worked with our Research, Litigation, and Insolvency groups.
