Bar Admission: British Columbia, 2024

Hannah is an associate in the Disputes Group of our Vancouver office. She completed her J.D. at the Peter A. Allard School of Law. Prior to law school, she obtained a Bachelor of Arts, majoring in English Literature, at the University of British Columbia (UBC).

During law school, Hannah was actively involved with the UBC Black Law Students' Association, serving as Vice President Internal in her first year and Co-President in her second year. Hannah also participated in the Gale Moot and served as a Student Ambassador.

After completing articles at the firm, Hannah clerked for five justices of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.
