Areas of Expertise

- Transfer Pricing

Karen's practice focuses on tax controversy, litigation and advisory services.

Karen has represented clients before various courts and has worked on files at the Tax Court of Canada, Federal Court of Appeal, and Supreme Court of Canada. Karen routinely assists taxpayers navigating the audit and appeals process with the Canada Revenue Agency, litigation and judicial review processes through the courts, and treaty relief through Competent Authority. Karen has experience in tax disputes including transfer pricing, GAAR and tax avoidance, hybrid debt, rectification orders, and SR&ED.

Prior to joining Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt LLP, Karen was an associate with a national tax firm practicing in tax planning, tax controversy, and advisory services and worked in-house in the tax group of a major energy company. Karen teaches Basic Tax Law as a Sessional Instructor and coaches students competing in the National Sports Law Negotiation through Thompson Rivers University, Faculty of Law.
