Kyle specializes in secured lending, with a particular focus on fintech and SaaS-based financing, asset-based lending, and acquisition financing. His practice emphasizes innovative solutions tailored to the unique needs of growth-stage technology and fintech companies. Kyle is adept at structuring facilities that align with recurring revenue models, rapid scaling, and evolving capital structures.

With over 15 years of experience advising clients in the financial services sector, Kyle brings a wealth of expertise to his practice. Prior to joining Osler, Kyle served as Senior Counsel at Royal Bank of Canada, where he provided strategic legal advice to its wealth management business. Earlier in his career, he worked as a corporate and financial services associate at a leading international law firm in the United Kingdom, gaining valuable cross-border transaction and regulatory experience.

Kyle's deep understanding of the financial services landscape, combined with his commitment to delivering tailored, practical solutions, makes him a trusted advisor to his clients.
