

Naomi Chernos

Associate, Privacy and Data Management

.....
Toronto

(416) 862-4870

nchernos@osler.com

.....
Bar Admission: Ontario, 2024

Areas of Expertise

Cybersecurity and Security Incident Response

Advertising and Marketing

Privacy and Data Management

Naomi is an associate in Osler’s Privacy and Data Management Group. Naomi’s practice involves assisting organizations across sectors with a range of privacy and data matters, including responding to privacy and security incidents, navigating privacy regulatory investigations, and addressing issues relating to privacy compliance, incident preparedness, commercial agreements, and data governance.

Prior to articling at Osler, Naomi obtained her Juris Doctor at the University of Toronto, her Masters of English Literature from the University of Cambridge, and a B.A. Honours in English Literature and Physics from Queen’s University.

Awards and Recognition

- Blake, Cassels & Graydon Prize

—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

- Book Prize, International Taxation

—UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Community Involvement

- Downtown Legal Services, Student Caseworker (2021-2022)
- Law in Action Within Schools, Volunteer

- Student Law Society – Academic Committee-Representative
-

Credentials

Education

- University of Toronto, JD (2023)
 - University of Cambridge, MPhil (English Studies)
 - Queen’s University, BA(H)
-

Languages

- English
-

Professional Affiliations

- Canadian Bar Association
- Ontario Bar Association
- Law Society of Ontario
- International Association of Privacy Professionals