Rabia is an Intermediate Corporate Paralegal in the Corporate Services Department of our Montréal office.

She has been specializing in corporate law since 2018 and joined Osler in 2023. With solid experience, Rabia oversees the corporate records of various clients and ensures compliance with statutory requirements, maintains accurate minute books and coordinates annual filings across all jurisdictions within Canada.

Rabia works closely with the lawyers and senior paralegals to assist with the preparation of corporate documents relating to due diligence, corporate reorganizations, financings and mergers and acquisitions, among other transactional work. Rabia is also involved with startups (primarily collaborating with our Emerging and High Growth Companies Group) and is keen to help create a positive work environment.
