Areas of Expertise

Insolvency and Restructuring

Tiffany is an associate in the Insolvency and Restructuring Group of our Toronto office. She completed her J.D. at Osgoode Hall Law School. Prior to law school, she obtained a Bachelor of Arts and Science from McMaster University. She also spent an exchange semester at the University of Bristol, studying EU political systems and medical humanities.

At Osgoode, Tiffany was a research assistant to Professor Aaron Dhir and a first-year contracts law Dean's Fellow. As part of Osgoode's international law intensive program, she worked at the Trade Law Bureau of Global Affairs Canada on matters of domestic and WTO trade law.
